LCACP Exam Prerequisites

LCACP exam candidates must first have their prerequisites tested and approved.

Candidates must indicate which of the following streams they consider themselves to comply with (this may be more than one stream), and submit the required evidence accordingly. LCACP exam prerequisites will only be assessed by LCANZ after payment for the prerequisite assessment has been received (including any LCANZ membership fees if applicable)

Prerequisites may be met by any one of the following:

1. A degree in LCA at the undergraduate or graduate level (submit copy of diploma)
2. Post-graduate study in LCA at the diploma or masters level (submit copy of diploma or degree)
3. A degree in environmental science or environmental engineering (submit copy of degree), plus submitting proof of an LCA internship or externship (at least 3 months, shown by a letter from employer) or participation in doing an LCA (LCA study submitted)
4. A university or polytechnic course, in which one has taken the following coursework or classes containing the essential skills of the class work:
    - General Chemistry
    - Statistics
    - Economics
    - Systems analysis or systems dynamics
    - Environmental Toxicology

    Plus proof of an LCA internship or externship (at least 3 months, shown by a letter from employer) or participation in doing an LCA (LCA study submitted).
5. LCA skills gained through experience: submit an LCA that is either critically reviewed or published in a peer reviewed journal (study submitted: applicant must be one of the listed authors)

ALL SUBMITTED MATERIALS ARE KEPT CONFIDENTIAL.

Submission of all materials verifying the prerequisites must be completed before candidates are able to apply for the exam, and may be emailed to membership@lcanz.org.nz and secretary@lcanz.org.nz.

Please contact membership@lcanz.org.nz to request a Microsoft Word version of this form.
